1. About the Applicable Programs and the Program Guidelines

The Japan Foundation conducts programs in the three major areas of Arts and Cultural Exchange, Japanese-Language Education Overseas, Japanese Studies and Intellectual Exchange, as well as Strengthening Cultural Exchange in Asia. There are applicable programs in each of these areas, and support is provided for activities conducted by individuals and organizations that are involved in international exchange.

The Japan Foundation Program Guidelines for Fiscal Year 2019 (April 1, 2019 to March 31, 2020) introduces the applicable programs offered by the Japan Foundation to individuals or organizations that are planning to implement international exchange projects mainly in fiscal year 2019. This booklet has been designed to help these individuals and organizations locate programs that match the projects that they are planning for.

If you find in the Program Guidelines a program that matches the project that you or your organizations are planning, please obtain the respective application instructions and application forms. Complete the forms and submit your application to the specified office. The Japan Foundation screens the applications and provides support to successful applicants.

Arts and Cultural Exchange

The Japan Foundation organizes various programs to introduce various aspects of Japanese art and culture all over the world. In addition, it promotes networking and human resources development in the arts and cultural fields by interactive collaboration/co-production and through dispatching and invitation of specialists.

Japanese-Language Education Overseas

To make the Japanese-language easier to learn and teach, the Japan Foundation develops infrastructures and environments for Japanese-language education overseas. In addition, it promotes Japanese-language education according to the circumstances by country and region through various activities, such as dispatching Japanese-language specialists and conducting Japanese-language training.

The Japan Foundation's Programs and Activities

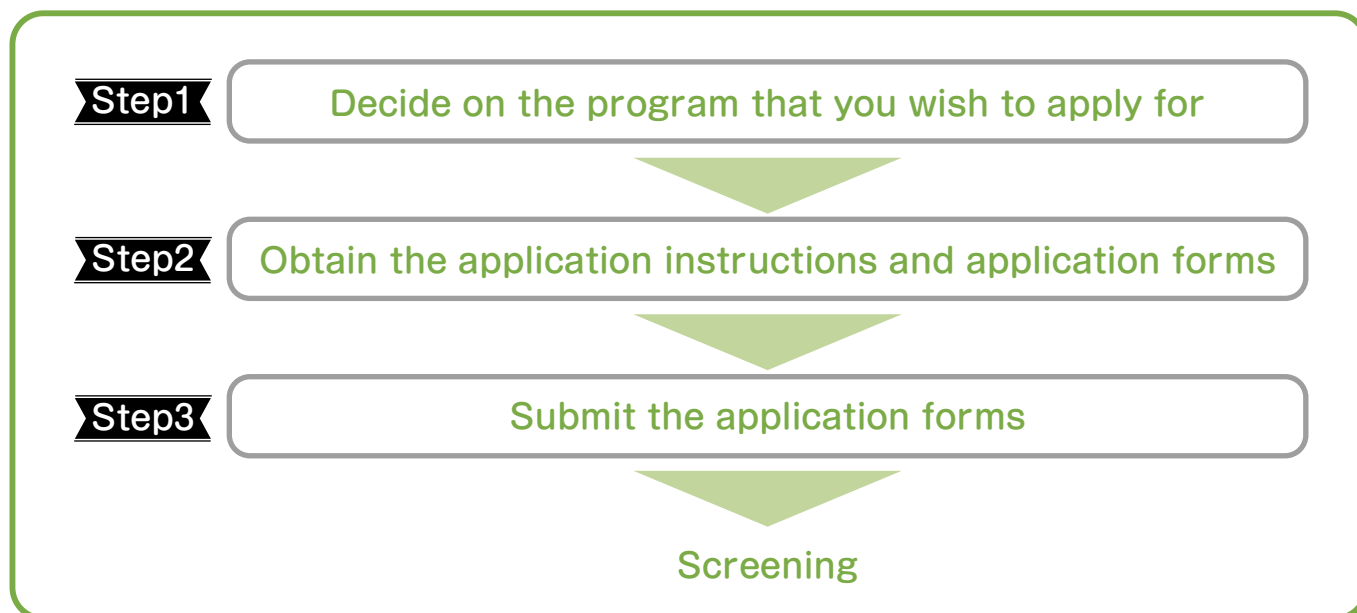

Japanese Studies and Intellectual Exchange

Programs in this field aim to encourage a greater understanding of Japan through supporting and promoting Japanese studies overseas. The Japan Foundation promotes dialogue about international common issues and develops human resources who play a key role in future dialogue and exchange initiatives.

Strengthening Cultural Exchange in Asia

The Japan Foundation Asia Center aims to foster awareness of empathy and coexistence as neighbors who live together among the residents of Asia through exchange and collaboration. To that end, it implements projects in diverse fields, such as art and culture, sports, Japanese-language education and academic exchange.

2. Application Procedures

6. Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

[Single Organization Applying for Multiple Projects]

Q: If an organization plans to stage multiple projects within a single fiscal year and applies to the Japan Foundation programs for each one, is it possible that all the applications will be accepted?

A: The Japan Foundation carries out screening for each project individually based on its contents. In some cases, multiple project applications are accepted from one organization.

[Eligibility for programs targeted at organizations]

Q: If a voluntary organization without judicial personality plans to apply for a program targeted at organizations, is it eligible to apply?

A: Yes it is. However, it is required to submit materials including articles of association, rules and regulations which indicate the foundation of organization, and documents about past activities and financial status of the organization. It is also required to have a bank account in the name of the applying organization to receive grants from the Japan Foundation (or set up a bank account before the acceptance of grants).

Q: Is a for-profit organization such as a stock company eligible to apply?

A: Yes, but it can only apply for the programs listed below.

- a. Grant Program for Dispatching Artists and Cultural Specialists, Performing Arts Japan for Europe, Grant Program for Enhancing People-to-People Exchange, and Grant Program for Promotion of Cultural Collaboration: The project must not be implemented for profit.

- b. Support Program for Translation and Publication on Japan: The translation and/or publication projects for Japan-related books that are difficult to publish commercially.

[Applying While Receiving Other Grants or Donations]

Q: When applying for a grant from the Japan Foundation, can I also apply for and receive a grant or donation from another organization(s) for the same project?

A: Yes, you can. However, certain conditions apply for receiving grants or donations from other organization(s) or corporation(s). Please read the application instructions for the respective program and the following restrictions.

- a. In the case of a grant application related to Korea, it is not permitted to receive grants from both the Japan-Korea Cultural Foundation (under the People-to-people Exchange Grant Program) and the Japan Foundation for the same project.
- b. The Japan Foundation cooperates with Japan-Taiwan Exchange Association on exchange projects with Taiwan. The Japan Foundation will not provide support to a project if it is eligible for programs of Japan-Taiwan Exchange Association (<https://www.koryu.or.jp/business/>). For further information about Taiwan projects, please read the application instructions for the respective program, and contact the section in charge at the Japan Foundation domestic offices or Japan-Taiwan Exchange Association Taipei office (p. 40) where necessary.
- c. If you are applying to the Grant Program for Dispatching Artists and Cultural Specialists, please note that the Japan Foundation will not give grants to projects that are supported by funds from Japanese governmental organizations, government-affiliated agencies, or independent administrative institutions of Japan. Projects that receive sponsorships from corporations, or grants and subsidies supporting organizations in the private sector or local public organizations, are eligible to apply for and receive grants from the Japan Foundation.

[Receiving Grants on an Ongoing Basis]

Q: Is an organization or individual that has received a grant in the past eligible to apply again?

A: Yes. However, the following restrictions apply.

- a. Please note that applicants will have to wait a set number of years before being able to apply again for a fellowship for individuals or a Japanese-language training program.
- b. In principle, grants will not be provided to individuals or organizations that have received support as part of the same program for three consecutive fiscal years (FY 2016–FY 2018) for a fourth consecutive fiscal year, unless the Japan Foundation assesses that there is strong justification for the continuation of the program. This measure has been put in place to prevent the immobilization of beneficiaries, as well as to create opportunities for more individuals and organizations to obtain support. While it is possible to apply for support for the same program for the fourth consecutive year, please note that low priority is typically given to such programs.

[One Project, One Program Principle]

Q: Is it possible to apply for multiple programs for a single project in the same year? By doing so, is it possible for one project to receive support from more than one Japan Foundation program?

A: No (Designated Donation Program is an exception). If applicants are unsure which program to apply for, please consult with the Communication Center (+81-3-5369-6075) before drawing up the application forms. The Communication Center will provide guidance on the most suitable program to apply for.
